

Position Snapshot

Business Area: Quality Management

Job Title: Internship in Technical Division – Quality Department

Location: Nestlé Office, Maroussi, Greece

Reporting to: Market Quality Manager

POSITION SUMMARY

Supports Sensory Specialist of Nestle Greece in the area of sensory evaluation (technical tastings, comparison tests) and market samples evaluation (analyzing samples, communication with external and internal stakeholders).

A DAY IN THE LIFE ...

- Evaluation of market samples through communication with Nestle producing markets
- Participate in the Release process of New Launched products from Nestle Inter Market Supply
- Provide Support sensory evaluation of products covering all product categories (technical tastings, comparison tests)

WHAT MAKES YOU SUCCESSFUL

- BSc or MSc in the Food Science and Technology
- Focus on quality, customer oriented and able to provide solutions
- Analytical and structure way of thinking
- Excellent interpersonal & communication skills (oral and written)
- Fluency in Greek and English
- Able to work in a network
- Strong proactive cooperation and initiative

WHY YOU SHOULD APPLY

- Excellent training and development programs as well as opportunities to grow within the company
 - Developmental feedback throughout your work-term to ensure that you are learning and understanding the importance of the business you're joining within the world's largest food company

- Build your business acumen and capabilities and support your development and long-term success

- Be part of a friendly, supportive team with a coaching and mentoring environment

- Real opportunities for future development and progression that could be a move to kick start your career journey

Send your CV to: Dimitra.Chrysikou@gr.nestle.com